

THINKING ABOUT VOLUNTEERING?

Dún Laoghaire
Rathdown Volunteer
Centre can help you get started!

volunteer centre

Ionaid d'Oibrí Dhún Laoghaire - Ráth an Dúin

DÚN LAOGHAIRE RATHDOWN

So what is volunteering? Put simply, volunteering is about choosing to give some of your time for free to benefit your community or society.

WHY VOLUNTEER?

- Gain valuable experience or improve your CV
- Try something new
- Share your knowledge, skills and talents
- Give something back to your community
- Meet people and make new friends
- Have fun!

WHAT CAN I DO AS A VOLUNTEER?

Whether you're a people person or want to share your technical skills, there's a volunteering role for everyone. With once off events, weekly activities or longer term placements, you can find something that fits your routine. You can even volunteer from home!

HOW TO GET STARTED

The Dún Laoghaire Rathdown Volunteer Centre exists to support volunteers - we can help you to find and apply for the right opportunity!

1. Register with your local volunteer centre:

Register online: www.volunteerdli.ie

2. Browse all the volunteer roles online

Need some extra assistance? Chat to a staff member over the phone or in person: 441 4444

3. Find something of interest?

Apply online and we'll keep in touch throughout the process to see how you're getting on

STAY IN TOUCH

 01 441 4444

 www.facebook.com/volunteerdli

 www.volunteerdli.ie

 www.twitter.com/volunteerdli